

ATLANTIC CITY–The East Coast Gaming Congress 15th annual conference will be held in Atlantic City on May 23-24, 2011.

The East Coast Gaming Congress is the premier forum for gaming experts to share ideas, express concerns and articulate visions about the past, present and future of the gaming industry.

The Congress will kick-off with a cocktail reception at The Pool at Harrah's Resort on Monday, May 23 sponsored by the Atlantic City Convention & Visitors Authority. The conference reconvenes the following day at the Atlantic City Convention Center beginning at 7:30 a.m. with a networking continental breakfast.

Throughout the program there will be five CEO Presentations given by Timothy Wilmott, President & COO Penn National Gaming; Robert Griffin, CEO Trump Entertainment Resorts; Virginia McDowell, President & CEO Isle of Capri Casinos; Mitchell Etes, CEO Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority; and Kevin DeSanctis, CEO Revel Entertainment Group.

The Luncheon Keynote Address will be given by Hon. Kim Guadagno, Lieutenant Governor of New Jersey and David L. Rebeck, Director of New Jersey Division of Gaming Enforcement. The scheduled panel discussions will tackle such topics as the Mid-Atlantic market over-saturation and internet gambling.

The East Coast Gaming Congress is organized and produced by Cooper Levenson, Attorneys at Law, SOSH Architects, and Spectrum Gaming Group.

For more information and sponsorship opportunities, contact Donna Vecere at dvecere@cooperlevenson.com. To register, visit www.ECGC.us.

